

DAVID SMITH

David has a long and successful riding career that started as an eventer years ago in Up-state New York. He evented to the Preliminary Level and in his Dressage career has trained several horses to the FEI Levels. David is a USDF Bronze, Silver & Gold Medalist. He has also won several USEF Dressage Championships, the most recent on his Holsteiner Mare, BELASORA, who has recently been retired due to an untreatable lameness.

David is also an "r" Dressage Judge and has already been seen judging at many competition venues around Pennsylvania and New Jersey. David is an accomplished dressage Instructor and Trainer and has coached many students to very successful showings at many Dressage and Eventing Championships. David spent many years training with the Grandfather of the Dutch training system; Henry Van Schick.
